Ballweg Sworn in for 103rd Wisconsin State Legislature

Madison... State Representative Joan Ballweg (R-Markesan) joined her Assembly colleagues today for inauguration. Ballweg took the oath of office for her seventh legislative term with Wisconsin Supreme Court Chief Justice Patience Roggensack.

"I'm honored to once again be sworn in as the state representative from the 41st Assembly District," said Ballweg. "My top priority as a legislator is to serve my constituents to the best of my abilities. I look forward to working on their behalf over the next two years."

Rep. Ballweg was joined by her husband, Tom, and their daughter, Becky.

Over the 2017-18 Biennium, Rep. Ballweg will serve as the Assembly Chair for the Joint Committee for Review of Administrative Rules and Vice-Chair of the Assembly Committee on Regulatory Licensing Reform. She will be a member of the committees on Children and Families, Colleges and Universities, Mental Health, Tourism, and the Joint Legislative Council.
